

My Home Group Minutes

Meeting held on Wednesday 20 March 2019 at 11am in The Square, 70 Renton Street

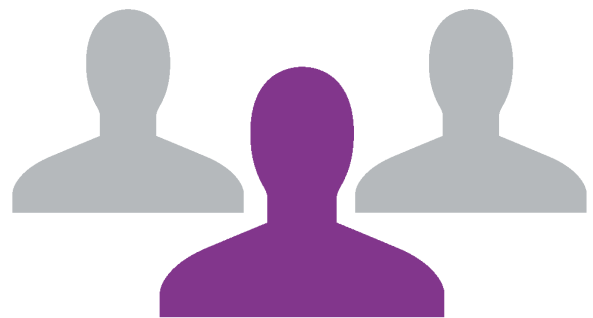

Present

In Attendance

9 Tenants

Gillian Conway
(Housing Services Officer)

Chloe Trew
(Scottish Human Rights Commission)

National Panel

We had a brief update on National Panel membership. Application forms were given to everybody who was previously interested in joining. There is no limit to how many people join from Key Housing which means you can always join at a later date. If you change your mind let Gillian know and she can send out, and help with, the application form.

Human Rights

Chloe from the Scottish Human Rights Commission spoke about our Human Rights and brought along some easy read guidance notes they have created about this.

She started the discussion by asking what our human rights are and why they are important. We focused on the right to a home and why it is important they are in good condition.

Chloe asked for our input to their easy read guidance about human rights. One of main themes of feedback was that some of the images used did not always reflect the topic being spoken about.

Chloe is going to take all the feedback and update the guidance. She hopes to bring back some updates to a future meeting of the My Home Group.

Next Meeting

Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday 15th May 2019 at 11am in our Main Office at The Square, Glasgow.

The second half of the meeting will be a 'Communi-tea' party to help celebrate Learning Disability Week 2019.
